

Metarepresentations of Supernatural Belief and the Effect of Context on Physiological Responses and Cognition

Grant no 147/16

Aim: Examine implicit belief and its effect on explicit belief by examining the evidence for implicit belief using context and physiological measures.

Objectives: Explore the effect of manipulation of context (religious, paranormal and neutral priming) on implicit belief
Examine the physiological basis of implicit belief using context and it will examine if certain beliefs effect elicit somatic markers

Study One- Priming Belief

Study Two- Somatic Markers

